MAX HOSPITAL - Emergency Department Summary

Patient: Priya Patel | Date: 14/01/2024

Emergency Presentation: Acute urticaria, lip angioedema, and wheezing following IV Ceftriaxone injection for UTI.
Diagnosis: Severe Anaphylactic Reaction to Ceftriaxone.
Treatment: IM Epinephrine 0.3mg, IV Hydrocortisone, nebulized salbutamol.
CRITICAL WARNING: Ceftriaxone Allergy documented. Absolute contraindication.

Dr. V. Gupta, Emergency Physician